Obituary

Pearline Mae Noble was born November 2, 1960 to mother Sylvia Phipps and father Segismund Russell in the parish of Clarendon, Jamaica W.I. She attended Denbigh High school and Saunders Catering School of Home Economics in Kingston where she graduated in Local and International Cookery as well as High Grade Dessert Pastries.

Soon after Pearline met the love of her life in 1980, Gerald Noble and the two married in 1988. The following year they relocated to the U.S. Pearline was an avid Christian and a passionate member of her community where she became an ordained minister. She worked diligently as a committed and dedicated spiritual servant of the Lord. She touched numerous lives throughout the entirety of her own and has left us with a glowing memory of how we should treat each other.

Pearline devoted her life to healthcare and helping others. She primarily worked with the elderly. Every person she took care of or knew would attest to her attention to detail and just how much she loved to be there for whoever was in need.

Those left to remember Pearline include her beloved husband Gerald Noble; children, Halia, Gerald and Jenelle; grandchild, Gabriel; brothers Terrance, Errol, Michael, Devon; sisters, Patricia and Beverly; countless nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends including Sandra and Diane.

Today we celebrate the life of a woman who committed her life to our Lord and Savior. A daughter, mother, sister and friend with a smile that could make the world be at peace. We all commend and appreciate each and everything she has done in her lifetime. We love you and are at peace knowing that you are now at rest in the arms of God Almighty himself.
