Obituary

David Lee Lyons was born on March 3, 1952 to the late Bertha Lee Harris Brown and the late Elvis Lee Harris of Durham, N.C. The Lord called David home to be with Him on May 8, 2020.

David moved to New York City where he found his passion to serve for his country. Then years later, worked for the Dept. Of Sanitation while working with kids in the Cadet Corps for over 25 years.

David was a devoted father. He was a sweet, kind, loving and caring man. He would tell you stories that would have you laughing for hours. He was the type of person that would do all he could and would even give you his last. He would be there for you if you needed to vent, even if all he did was listen. He was a hero to many and loved by many. He gave you hope, encouragement, showed love and treated you like family even if you weren't family. He was an all around great man and will definitely be missed. We will always love you, David Lee Lyons.

He was preceded in death by his late mother, Bertha Lee Harris Brown, his late father, Elvis Lee Harris; sisters, Brenda G. Lyons & Marie Rogers of Raleigh, N.C., his brother, William T. Lyons of Durham, N.C.

He is survived by his sisters, Mary Harris Of Raleigh, N.C., Candy Marie Austin, brother-in-law, Carl Austin, Beverly Lyons; his brother, Elvis Harris (Helen Harris, sister-in-law) of Raleigh, N.C. his six children: David L. Lyons, David Abreu, Rachael Jackson, Tasha Bynum, Latisha Thomas, and April Bynum, his ten grandchildren: Tiara Jackson, David Lyons, Zami Lyons, Davianna Lyons, Chayse Washington, Reyna Gumbs, Michael Thompson Jr. and Ma'niyah Bailey, his aunts; Magaline Hodge of Louisburg, N.C and Ethel Stallings of NYC, his long time girlfriend, Vastina Coward, and a host of nieces, nephews, uncles, cousins and friends.

A Psalm of David

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
