Obituary

Victoria (Washington) Brown was born on September 2, 1958, to Dorothy Louise Feaster and Raze Washington, in Mobile, Alabama. She was referred to her family and friends as Vickey.

She began her education in the public school system, then attended St. Mary's Catholic school in Passaic, NJ. Vickey later attended Passaic High School where she graduated. She also attended Jersey City State College majoring in Social Service. Vickey began working for the Department of Children Protection and Permanency. In 1985, she was employed for the U.S. Postal Service for thirty five years, she was in the process of retiring.

Vickey joined the Union Baptist Church and baptized under the leadership of the late Rev. T.H. Alexander. She later relocated to Newark NJ. In 1985, Vickey married William Brown, through this union their son, Derrick was born.

Derrick meant the world to his mom, they had a Mother/Son relationship like no other. Derrick was very protected with his mom, he wouldn't allow anyone to disrespect his mom, he loved his mom unconditionally, and she loved her son with that same passion.

Vickey went the mile for her grandson. Day Day, was her only grandson for 13 years. Whenever you visited Vickey's house, Day Day was right there with his grandma. He loved bacon and Vickey would cook him the best breakfast with all the fixing. She was able to meet and hold her little granddaughter, Deyja, before God called Vickey home, she looked into the eyes of her baby girl with a Love that only a grandmother can give.

In 2006 she became a grandmother to Dyshon Allen and again in 2020, her granddaughter, Deyja Reign. Vickey loved children and she loved her family. She took an interest in people that required special attention. She was very quiet and private, her smile brought sunshine everywhere she went. We will miss her dearly and her Spirit will always surround us with her Love.

Vickey had a special way with children, they loved her and always wanted to be in her presence, she was soft spoken even when she was trying to be stern. Her caregivers at the hospital and facility all talked about her free and caring spirit. She wanted to buy them some pastries to show her appreciation for taking care of her. Vickey had a beautiful relationship with her family and friends, Aunt Yvonne and Sis Nita, always worked together when planning get togethers, they had loads of fun.

Vickey was preceded in death by her parents, Dorothy L. Feaster and Raze Washington; her Stepfather, Jefferson Feaster, Sr.; brother, Jefferson Allen, Jr.; sister-in-law, Janice Y. Feaster; niece, Chatiqua Feaster; maternal grandparents, Floyd Sr. and Willie Bell Williamson; six uncles and three aunts.

She leaves to cherish her memory, son, Derrick William Brown (Shanique Pitts); two grandchildren, Dyshon Allen Brown and Deyja Reign Brown, all from Newark, NJ; sister Naomi (Jose) Velez, Paterson, NJ; brother, Raze Washington, Mobile, Al; two aunts, Yvonne Williamson, Clifton, NJ, Johnnie Mae Mannuel, Newark, NJ; niece, Lateefah Williams and nephew, Jose Velez, Jr., Paterson, NJ; great niece, Azariah McRae, Paterson, NJ; God-daughter, Ebony; special friends, Cheryl Tillman, Evette Kollock and Linda Watson-Martin and a host of family and friends.

As Time Passes On

I tried to walk the road of righteous, although its not so easy I tried to live as the Lord wanted me to and live my life to please him. Its a blessing to wake up each day and thank the Lord above, for his Mercy and Grace and his caring ways and teaching us how to Love. Oftentimes we are faced with grief and sorrow, on earth there is much temptation Thank God for Jesus Christ his son, he died for my salvation. As Time Passes on, I must be on my way, As Time Passes on, the Lord must have his way. Farewell for now my sisters and brothers, the time has come for me to be with Jesus and all the Saints, in Heaven is where I'll be.
