Reflections of Life

Irvina Renea Gee "Renea" departed this life May 17, 2020 tragically, Renea was born February 11, 2000 to Sharon Harper & Javon Gee Sr. weighing in at 6lbs 5oz. She was my surprise babygirl a twin to Irvin Gee.

Renea was a hard worker who graduated high school and went on to working her first job at a summer program for Gilmore Church Daycare, she also worked for the Boys and Girls Club of Paterson. Renea was holding two jobs down when she was working at McDonald's on 3rd Ave in Paterson. Her current employment was Panera Bread in Paramus. Renea was very active and loved by everyone. Renea was a member of Agape Christian Ministry under the leader Dr. James A. Kuykendall where she was baptized. She was also apart of the Youth Choir, Dance Ministry, and Teen Ministry. Renea was the light of wherever she went sparkling up the room with her laughter and her favorite quote was "Hey!!! Mommy do you miss me baby" Renea loved traveling and going swimming, going to actions parks like wild wood riding those crazy rides. She loved spending time with her mom ,grandma and siblings but she mostly loved going to New York to spend time with her father, Raheem cooking for him and her brother. Renea was very family orientated.

Renea is preceded in death by her great great grandparents, Dorothy Tuck, William Tuck, Willie Harper and Elizabeth Gee also her grandmother, Catherine Gee and aunt, Selicia Gee

Renea is survived by her parents, Sharon Harper, Javon Gee Sr., and her stepfather, Raheem Nahsif who she loved very deeply. She's also survived by her great great grandmother, Marguerite Harper; grandparents, Shayne Harper, Irvina Fields (Leon Fields) Kenny Shipman; her uncles, Shayne Harper Jr., Levon Haper, Victor Gee; her aunt, Stephanie Gee; her siblings, Maelisha Payne, Tamara Payne, Dahawn Williams, Javon Gee Jr., Shayne Gee, Irvin Gee, Raheem Nahsif Jr., Kamir Gee, Amiyah Gee, her nieces and nephews, Ariella, Angel, Jordan, Jai'lynn, Dahsawn Jr., Zae'vien, Keyoni, Jayceon, An'nyan; her best friends, Destyne West, Kayla Cosme, Lay Lay Edwards, Tierra Brevard; along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
