Reflections of Life

Thomas “Supreme” Tisder Jr. was born on September 24, 1965 in Paterson, NJ to Beatrice and Thomas Tisder Sr.

Supreme received his education within Wayne and Paterson school districts. He became a member of Tisder Investment LLC real estate with his brother Timothy Tisder, and he was employed at the Home Depot and other various jobs.

Supreme was known for his great personality and beautiful smile. He was also very humble and laid back. He enjoyed spending time with his family, especially his children. Supreme loved reading, writing, history and science. He devoted a lot of time educating others in the Five Percent Nation of Gods, since the age of 17.

Supreme has always exemplified an outstanding ability to socially interact with people of all ages, races and gender. His suave mellow personality and relaxed appearance always allowed him a space in any conversation, classroom, event or forum. Alongside his greatest achievements, with the birth of children topping the list, he is also one of the founders and chief organizers of an annual youth celebration event in the city of Paterson titled, “The Day of the Babies”. Supreme was a devout seeker and teacher of Knowledge, Wisdom, and Understanding of Culture, History, Science and Mathematics for over 38 years and there was never a point in his daily life where he went without expressing it. As an active member of the 5 Percent Nation of Gods and Earths for almost decades he is credited for providing the cultural teachings to hundreds if not thousands of people from various cities and states via print media, video, audio, internet and person to person. Aside from his children, his most lauded learners of the culture were Great Understanding and King Civilized who had taken the teachings far beyond the realm of its beginnings. A Supreme organizer, promoter, student and teacher with the Divine character and personality of God he has contributed so much towards the enlightenment of people and himself. A “Constructive Criticizer”, “Lover of Knowledge” and “Passionate Debater” he has left an unremovable stain on all those whom he comes in contact with. From music to fashion to culture and education his legacy will live on and so shall it be through us....

Supreme met and married Nicola Ivey from that union they had two daughters and a son. He was predeceased by his parents, Beatrice and Thomas Tisder Sr. and sister Theresa Bucknor.

Supreme leaves behind to cherish his memory Nicola Ivey, his children Tyrese, Sajadah and Kiley Paterson, NJ. step-mother, Geraldine Tisder, Darlington, SC, four sisters; Tomasena Cadle (Rudy), Darlington, SC, Tamara Tisder-Woods (Isa), North Plainfield, NJ, Danielle Spruill, Passaic, NJ, Cassandra Spruill, Darlington, SC and Denise Law, Florence, SC, three brothers; Timothy Tisder, Hawthorne, NJ, Terry “Rayshon” (Malika) Paterson, NJ, James Williams, Darlington, SC., Daniel Spruill, WA, Special brother-in-law, Isa Woods, close cousins; Janelle McBride, Dr. Tiffany McBride, Antwan, Todd, Bernard and Kareem Jamison, Cleveland “Man” Cannon, Chris “Freedom” and Junior Dock, Ulysses “Wimp” Green, Cleveland “Cle” Allen; special brothers; Kelvin (Koko) Wells, Douglas (I-Power) Mason, King Civilized, Jason (Knowledge) Sapp, Danny Cushnie, Ronald (I-God) Cope, Knowledge Understanding, Bernard Bacote, and Byron “Great” Brooks; close friends Kwame Kemp, Keith “Kool” Alston, Dwayne “IO” Thorpe and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
