Obituary

Phyllis Adina Dabson was born on February 10th 1921 to Samuel Douglas Sr. and Clareta Heywood in Jamaica West Indies.

She was married to Harvey Dabson, who preceded her on September 25, 1988, before her marriage she had one son George K. Adams.

Upon migrating to the United States in 1965, Phyllis worked in the healthcare industry-her last place of employment being Mary Manning Nursing Home.

Phyllis gave her heart to the Lord at an early age and she faithfully served her Savior since. She has the distinction of being a foundation member of Emmaus Bible Chapel, Bronx, New York, having been a member since July 1987. Phyllis has been an active, visible and extremely supportive member of Emmaus Bible Chapel. While living in Jamaica, she attended Olivet Gospel Hall.

A very thoughtful and kind individual, Phyllis was very family oriented and extremely organized. While she was of a very quiet disposition, Phyllis was very firm on her principles and she demonstrated high integrity throughout her life. One of her favorite phrases was (The Lord Knows Best).

She is survived by her sister Doreen Clark; many nieces and nephews; granddaughter Yvonne Adams; grandson Everaldo (Jimmy) Adams; four great grandchildren; two great great grandchildren and many friends.

Psalms 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to express their deep appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them during their time of bereavement.
