Throughout Ruby's life, she was blessed to birth & raise four children, & later accepted the call to adopt & raise three of her Sister's children. She worked hard to provide & care for her family and would always lend a hand to extended family as well. God always had a way of using Ruby. She loved singing on the Agape Fellowship Choir and could often be heard humming & singing one of her favorite gospel songs, "He looked beyond my faults & saw my needs. Ruby was employed by the City of New York as a welfare counselor until she had to retire in late 2014 because of health reasons. In March 2007, Ruby was nominated and awarded by then Brooklyn DA Hynes as an Extraordinary Woman of Brooklyn because she was such a courageous DV survivor.

After Miss Ruby's retirement, she moved to Deer Park, LI with her youngest brother & his wife. She participated in all family functions by making her customary potato salad & collard greens that she always made with love. She adored her family.
