OBITUARY

Mr. David Buckman Jr. of Newark, New Jersey departed this life on May 21, 2020 in our Lord's arms peacefully at his home. David was born on June 6, 1948 to the late David Buckman Sr. and Sarah Wilson-Buckman in Pinewood, South Carolina. They eventually migrated to Newark, New Jersey.

David was preceded in death by his brother Ishaq Mekki, grandson Malik Williams, his aunt Ruth Wilson and uncle Isaac Wilson.

Davis was also known to his family as "Sunny Boy" was a graduate of Southside High School in Newark, New Jersey where he was one of the star players on the basketball team. He attended Rutgers University along with Essex County College where he took classes to obtain his Real Estate license.

He thoroughly enjoyed working as a Tank man for Allied Aviation at Newark International Airport for over 20 years.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son David Buckman III of Bridgeton, New Jersey; Step-daughter Sherese Hinkle of Orange, New Jersey; Granddaughters Dynisha Jones- Allison of Oxford, North Carolina, Jasmine Buckman of Elizabeth, NJ, aunt Daisy (Boo) James of Newark, NJ, Godson Marcus Flowers of Newark, NJ, (7) Great grandchildren, nieces, a nephew and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends. David lived a very private and peaceful life. He enjoyed reading and watching sports. He was well versed on historical events (he was almost like a walking history book.) He loved music and would talk about and listen to The Temptations -all the time! He was a wonderful Father, Grandfather and Great-grandfather, he was always there for support and provided words of wisdom" Lot's of these!" What a good man indeed. The great grands, Christopher, Da'Nijah, Benjamin and Basir says " We Love and will never forget you Grandpa." Cousins Lois, Cootie, Diane, Larry and Bobbie says "We will always love you". Most importantly he believed in God, who has him in his loving care now.
