Reflections of Life

Vincent was born in Cowick District in Manchester, Jamaica. He was the son of Martha and Lloyd Morgan. Vinny migrated to the United States of America in 1986. He later married and that marriage produced two children, Dwayne and Tiffany Morgan.

Vin-Man was a music lover, and he would always play his Bob Marley music loudly. He enjoyed cooking, especially his Sunday dinner which would consist of curry goat and rice and peas. He was a very kind person, who was jovial, reliable and honest. Vinny loved his children and his family. He also loved his job as a mechanic and was good at fixing things around the house. In 2005, Vinny remarried Verona and they continued to live in Paterson, New Jersey together.

In 2014, Vinny had a massive stroke that left him unable to physically help himself however despite his circumstances he kept his sense of humor. His wife had to place him in a nearby nursing home where she could visit him as often as she could. When she visited him, she would often call his brothers Lewis and Peter so that he could talk to them.

Vinny had a very good friend by the name of John, who would visit him everyday and brought him breakfast because Vinny did not like the nursing home food. John would always help Verona to shower Vinny, cut his hair and nails, and shave him so that he would look nice.

John would always make sure that Vinny ate his lunch before he left for work and 1 p.m. everyday, he would take Vinny to the TV Room where they would play cards and talk to the other residents. John told Verona that if anything were to happen to her, he would be there to help her too. The family thanks John for being such a good friend to Vinny, and for being there for him through thick and thin.

He leaves to cherish precious memories are his wife, Verona; son, Dwayne; one daughter, Tiffany; one granddaughter; brothers, Llewelyn, Peter, Otis; sisters, Gloria, Lyn, Ann, Cynthia Mitsy; step-daughter, Antoinette; step-sons, Paul and Calvin and a multitude of nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, and other family and friends.

Gone too soon.

May his soul Rest In Peace.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain
and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me,
"get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*
