Obituary

Jean Alix Pirame, “Yabouth”, 61, of Plainfield, NJ, passed away on November 4, 2021.

He was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, to Mercia Pirame and Paul Mathieu. He was raised by his mother in Haiti as the only child. Jean first migrated to Canada for four years before coming to the United States thirty years ago. He lived in many cities such as Linden, Newark, Hillside before moving to Plainfield sixteen years ago.

Jean worked at SiS Corp. for many years prior to working at Shoprite in Hillside for the past fifteen years. A devoted family man, he enjoyed working on and fixing cars. He was happy when listening to Kompa and Reggae music. Some of his favorite musicians was Tropicana d'Haiti, Septan, Coupe Cloue and Bob Marley. He also enjoyed a good comedy or action movie. He worked very hard but on his free time he enjoyed being in the comfort of his home. He was a huge joker, always making people laugh and being the main attraction in a room.

He was a great support system to the his dearest family and friends, always motivating the youth to stay focus and better themselves. He will truly be missed.

Jean was the beloved husband of Christine Badio. He was the loving father of Jean Alix C. Pirame and his wife Funmi and Terry Pirame. He is also survived by his stepchildren, Guy Laurent and his wife Marie, Slade Jonka, Spaggery Maurice, Barbara Sanon and her husband Frantzy, Spaggeana Geffrard and her boyfriend Xio, Samad Brun and his girlfriend Alexis and Junior Cadet. In addition to 9 grandchildren, his aunts Normetide Pirame and Minerve Pirame as well as many other cousins, relatives and friends.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.
