

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

St. John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Ryan O'Neil Williams was born on January 21, 1969, in Coney Island, Brooklyn, New York; to James R. Powell and Mary Williams McLaughlin. He received his formal education in the New York City Public School System. Ryan also attended Kingsboro Community College where he went on to further his education.

Ryan worked as the acting Supervisor for Thrive for many years and then they were brought out by the New York Founding (a group home for middle aged adults) where he worked as a Residential Supervisor.

Ryan was the kind of person who would help anybody. He tried to help the whole community. He provided jobs for many people. He was the type of person that would give his shirt off his back for you. He believed in second chances and believed that everyone should have a second chance.

Ryan truly lived through simple pleasures, such as: chatting with friends and family, watching television, and joking around with his loved ones. Ryan just had a big heart that was full of love. You could never tell when he was angry. Ryan just believed in showing love.

Mermaid Housing Building, #2940, is where Ryan was nurtured, cherished and loved by his family and his community in that building. Ryan looked out for everyone; it didn't matter who you were or what your background or your circumstances were, he had your back and helped you.

Three people that he loved dearly were: his long-time girlfriend Doncella Graham, Jayden Graham who he took and raised as his son and his niece, Desiree Denice Williams. His special friend Tarnisha Shesha Shuler who was his buddy; and Ryan's friend George Batey, who he mentored.

On December 18, 2021, Ryan departed this life for the next. He leaves to cherish his memory, his four brothers: Clinton Williams, Vincent Williams (both of NC), Darrell Williams of NJ, Rueben McLaughlin, Jr. of Staten Island, NY; three aunts: Evangelist Zuleen Brown of Raleigh, NC, Lucy Ann Crudup of Louisburg, NC, Earnestine Brodie of Paterson, NJ, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, the Mitchell family, other relatives and friends and special thanks to Mrs. Geraldine.
