Psalms 27:3-4 NLT

Though a mighty army surrounds me, my heart will not be afraid.

Even if I am attacked, I will remain confident.

The one thing I ask of the Lord— the thing I seek most—is to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, delighting in the Lord's perfections and meditating in his Temple.

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.*

*Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.*

*Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears*

*In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.*

*Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today*

*How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away*

*And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched*

*For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

Eloise Delores Beard-Jones

Eloise Beard-Jones was called to be with the Lord on January 8, 2022. Eloise was born on August 2, 1942 to Ruth Beard and Phillip Beard in Chicago, Illinois. She was the eldest of ten children.

Eloise attended Wheaton Central High School, and shortly after graduating, she joined the United States Marines Corps. After serving she moved to New Jersey where she met the Love of her life, Howard T. Jones.

Eloise went on to attend Passaic County Community College where she received a degree in Respiratory Therapy, as well as a degree in Science, she then attended William Paterson University where she received a Bachelor's degree in Biology and Sociology.

Eloise worked as a Lab Technician at MetPath while she helped her husband run his restaurant "Somethin Ta Eat" on North Main Street, in Paterson, NJ.

Eloise was preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and Phillip Beard, her siblings, Howard Beard, Gerard Beard and Sylvia Beard..

Eloise leaves to cherish her memories, her only child, Elizabeth Beard-Jones; grandchildren, Azaget Johnson, and Se'Maj Chappell; her siblings, Evelyn Johnson, Jeffery Beard, Rosemary Herbert, Victor Beard, Carl Beard, and Gloria Martin; four of her closest friends, Sister Delores Lindsay, Sister, Julia Edwards, Sister Claudette Washington, and Patricia Boyce; along with a host of nieces, nephews, devoted friends and neighbors. She was loved by all who knew her.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one can ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.
