Memories

A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
 I keep hearing a voice that says,
 "Grieve not for me.
 Remember the best times,
 the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.
 Continue my heritage,
 I'm counting on you.
 Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
 My mind is at ease,
 my soul is at rest.
 Remembering all,
 how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions,
 no matter how small.
 Go on with your life,
 don't worry about falls.
 I miss you all dearly,
 so keep up your chin.
 Until the day comes we're together again."

Obituary

Clevil Aubrey Parris was born on October 8th, 1953 in Georgetown, Guyana. He was the first of six children born to Princess Parris.

Clevil Parris worked faithfully and earnestly in the house of the Lord. God bestowed upon him the gift of music and he used it to glorify His name. Being a humble, selfless man he willingly shared this gift to anyone who wanted to learn. He was a delight to everyone that he came in contact with through his infectious laughter. Many were blessed by his gentle spirit as well as his generosity.

He wants everyone to realize that none of his earthly achievements are of importance and requested they not be mentioned. Instead he wants it to be known that he is a child of God who was sent to work in His vineyard.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Princess Parris and Neville Issacs. His brother, Colin Marshall, his sister-in-law, Velma Jean Cox, and his brother-in-law, Joseph Benjamin.

He leaves to cherish his memory wife, Beverley-Ann Parris and daughter, Cle-Breya Parris.
