

~ Just in Case ~
 Just in case my Master calls me and my task on earth is done.
 Just in case He comes to tell me
 That my last great victory's won.
 I'm leaving you this statement
 That will make matters easier, too
 It will help you make decisions
 About each thing that you must do.

Just in case your load gets heavy
 When I close these eyes to rest.
 Just remember Jesus loves you,
 and He'll help you stand the test.

Just in case you're sadly wondering
 Why I left you all alone...
 I was tired and weary,
 And I longed for heaven, my home.
 Tell my friends that I was ready angels stood around my bed.
 They were there to bring me comfort,
 And relayed each prayer I said...
 Gave me courage and contentment.
 Smoothed my weary, laden brow
 Kept my faith strong and undaunted
 As I renewed each Christian vow.

Just in case your eyes are tear-filled
 And your heart strings nearly break
 Just hold on to each promise...
 Hold on for Jesus' sake.
 He has promised to be near you
 So, calm the grief within your breast
 Do not weep for me, my loved ones,
 For He knows I've done my best.

Acknowledgement

We are never prepared to face the departure of a loved one to eternity. However, at such a time, the comforting expressions of love and concern shown by family members and friends help to make the transition easier to bear.

Your words have been heard, your prayers have been felt and your deeds have been recorded...and we "Thank You."

May God bless each of you for the many courtesies extended to us during our bereavement.

Obituary

God, in His divine wisdom and loving Holy Spirit blessed our dearly beloved Annie Mae Jones Foster to pass from labor to reward to be with the Lord on February 4, 2022.

Annie Mae was born on April 11, 1942, in Columbus, Georgia to the late William R. Jones, Sr. and Lola R. Jones.

She married Eugene Foster, Jr. and to this union two children were born: Marvin Eugene Foster and Troy Emanuel Foster. A lifelong resident of Newark, New Jersey, Annie raised her family in a loving home and instilled Christian values in her children.

She confessed her faith in Jesus Christ and was a faithful member of Harvest International Ministries in Irvington, NJ.

She worked for the Newark Board of Education for several years. After her employment there, she worked for The New Hope Baptist Church Day Care Center in Newark, New Jersey and retired after 30 years of service.

Annie was preceded in death by her husband, Eugene Foster Jr., her son, Troy Emanuel Foster, and one brother, William R. Jones, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Marvin E. Foster (Elise) of Stroudsburg, PA, sisters-in-law, Ms. Mary Foster of Albany, GA, Mrs. Elaine Lee (Aldof) of Albany, GA, Mrs. Ruby Gladson (James) of Altamonte Springs, FL, seven grandchildren, a special cousin, Annie Pearl Thomas of Sacramento, CA, three dear friends: Edna Gillett and Delores Zellner of Newark, NJ and Susie McGinty of Columbus, GA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
