Obituary

Mr. Johnnie Bowie was born on November 9, 1943 in Bronx, New York to the late Edward Sr. and Edith Bowie. Johnny also known as “Macgyver” or “Boss” departed this life on Sunday, January 16, 2022 due to heart failure.

He was raised in the Bronx, New York and went through the New York City school system. He was known as a hard worker, always kind, nice, and respectable to everyone who knew him and respected and loved him. He would help anybody if he could. That was the kind of person he was—an amazing person.

He always had a job. He never liked to sit still, he was always on the move. He owned his own exterminator business.

He was an excellent cook and baker (finger licking good). He said he got it from his Mama.

He leaves: five children, Shimina, Johnnie, Helen, Dominique and Simone; twelve grandchildren; one great-grandchildren; two sisters, Ronnie and Jeanette; and cousins, nieces, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
