Obituary

Ms. Brenda Corbett was born the 21st of May, 1952 in New Orleans, Louisiana to Marian Louise Corbett. The second of 4 children, she graduated from Jamaica High School, in the summer of 1970.

In January 1972, she had her first of 3 children, Damon Woods, Jr. She excelled in mathematics, leading her to become a bank teller, followed by a few years stint as a Parking Enforcement Officer. In April 1977, she had her second child, Brian Corbett. Not long after, she landed what would be her career job as a Token Agent with the M.T.A. and was a life long member of NYCERS. In September 1990, she had the last of her children, Robert Baldwin, Jr.

She was loving, kind, loyal, and generous. She sponsored a great many charities; Food for the Poor and Save the Children we're just a few. She loved to laugh. Even in her dark days, she had a great sense of humor. Her laugh was infectious.

Brenda valiantly battled various health issues for years. Just after Thanksgiving 2021, things took a drastic turn for the worst. Thursday, February 3, 2022, her time would expire, and she would transcend. Fitting it would rain that day. As she would explain to her children, that "Rain was God crying".

She is survived by: two siblings: Denise Mealing and Grover Corbett; two children: Brian Corbett and Robert Baldwin Jr.; eight grandchildren: Michael Woods, Marquez Woods, Messiah Corbett, Israel Corbett, Jason Woods, Adrian Navarro, Isys Corbett and Reign Corbett; and two great-grandchildren, Connor Woods and Armaree Corbett.

Together we shared a child's world...we talked, we disagreed, we shared many hurts and joys. The older we grew the stronger the bond between us. I will always be proud to have had you as my sister. Life has taken us down separate paths Now I must say good bye, but I want you to know my dear sister that I will always cherish the lifetime we shared together and carry you in my heart today, tomorrow, and forever. Until we meet again rest in eternal peace.

I love you, Denise
