

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to Leave you.
My loved ones oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me.
His voice was very clear.
I had made my reservation.
Heaven bound ticket for one.

And I knew he would call me when he felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy because I have gone away,
But when the master called me, I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you my loved ones, oh so dear.
But, you see, the master called me and now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory,
And to you all I say,
Just stay in the hands of Jesus and we'll meet again someday.

“The memory of you is a keepsake with us which will never fade away. God has you in His keeping, We have You in our hearts.”

Gertrude T. Robinson was born in Newark, New Jersey on December 10, 1956. She was eleventh child of the late Lawrence and Fannie Robinson. She was affectionately known as “Gert” to her family and friends.

Gertrude was educated in the Newark Public School System, attending Maple Avenue Elementary School and Weequahic High School.

Gertrude was a devoted employee of the Woodbridge Development Center in Rahway as a CTT and retired after 26 years of service. After retirement she took on a part time position with Bubble City Laundromat in Newark.

Gertrude was a faithful member of Philemon Baptist Church where she was baptized on February 3, 2019 under the leadership of Rev. Edward A. Allen Sr.

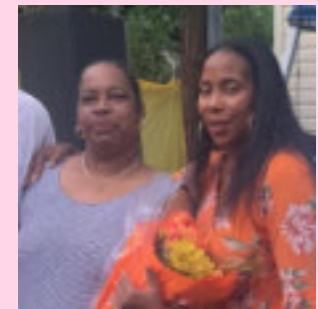

Gertrude loved her family and was always the “Life of the Party”. Her hobbies were enjoying family activities, traveling, shopping, listening to music, playing video games, playing scratch offs, and going to the Casino. She also enjoyed meeting new people everywhere she went, helping others when she could and spending time with her beloved dog Coco. Her personality was humble, confident, very outspoken and she was a unique individual in her own right. Gert was very popular and got along with everyone. Anyone who was blessed to know her could not help but to love and respect her. Gertrude smile and stern look overlooking Renner Avenue will be missed.

Gertrude joins in eternity, her parents Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence and Fannie Robinson ; six siblings Lawrence Jr., Calvin, Robert, Freddie, Catherine and Jackie Robinson.

Gertrude leaves to cherish fond memories, her loving daughters, Simone Robinson (Al-Tariq) and Mary Hammond (Saleem); three grandchildren Sariyah, Faraji and Sanaa ; six amazing sisters Loretta, Louise, Patricia, Delores, Christine and Sheree Ann ; Godmother Mary (Lib) Mitchell.

She also leaves a grand host of Loving Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, Godchildren and friends. She leaves her besties Brenda, Sill, Yvette, Charlotte, Stephanie and the late Roselyn Norton. Also her special friend Penny.

In the Words of “Gertrude”.....
That’s It, That’s All.
