Obituary

Cathrine Weaver was born to Corine and Pedrito Walters on January 16, 1935, in Harlem, New York.

In her younger years, Cathrine was known to be head-strong, a born leader and always on time. She had a hankering to have everything she did in order and documented. If she discovered how to do something she shared it with everyone. After graduating from Central Commercial High School she held professional positions with the Department of Corrections, Gilpin & Company Inc. and The Social Security Administration. Cathrine later obtained a degree in Early Childhood Education going on to teach at The Modern School and The Department of Education.

Cathrine was blessed to find love. She met Alonzo Brown, who preceded her in death, and together they had a daughter Vanessa. She later met Clarence Lester, who preceded her in death, and together they had a son Carlos. Cathrine met her last husband, Thomas Weaver while working at The Social Security Administration, who also preceded her in transitioning.

Cathrine, affectionately known to her family as “Gaggie” was eccentric, very creative and loved to paint and write poetry. These talents were passed on to her children and grandchildren, whom she loved dearly. She was the embodiment of love and sacrifice. She was an integral part of her family. Cathrine was an overprotective mother and grandmother who instilled God-consciousness and moral values in her children, grandchildren, and any children under her care. Her example of fortitude and matter-of-fact demeanor was no nonsense, and greatly appreciated by her family.

Gaggie is survived by: her two children, Vanessa and Carlos; grandchildren, Mecca, Malik and Maliha; great granddaughter, Aliyah; son-in-law, George “LaLa”; sister, Andrea; brother, Robert; and a host of family and friends.

Cathrine made her transition on February 20, 2022 at the age 87.

BISMILLAH irRahman IrRaheem

(With The name ALLAH Most Gracious and Merciful)

Surah 17, Al-Isra, The Night Journey; Avat 66

It is your Lord who steers the ship for you through the sea that you may seek of His Bounty. Indeed, He is ever, to you, Merciful.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
