Obituary

Carolyn Jean McConico, 65, of the Bronx, NY, transitioned on Saturday, February 19, 2022.

On February 4, 1957, Carol was born to Georgia Mae McConico and Paul McConico (deceased) in Harlem, NY. Carol accepted the Lord and was baptized at Greater Bible Way Pentecostal Church. She later served as a member of the usher board at Lowly Nazarene Baptist Church. She joined her last church, Good News Baptist Church, on November 8, 2020.

During her formative years, she became an avid Mets fan, enjoyed westerns and Star Trek, drawing, and helped to raise her younger siblings. Carol enjoyed traveling and found joy in cruising and visiting other cities.

Carol attended NYC Public Schools graduating from Brandeis High School. She furthered her education and earned an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education from Hostos Community College. She spent 24 years as an Assistant Teacher at La Peninsula Head Start.

In 2000, Carol was initiated into the Order of the Eastern Star Sisters' of Camille Chapter #469 in Harlem, NY. She was a member in good standing for 22 years in Lady Vivian Evens, District 1B.

Carol, affectionately known as "Jeannie", was the second of eight children. Although she did not have children of her own, Carol was an aunt and mom to thirteen nieces and nephews. As the years progressed, she became great-aunt Carol to the children of the former.

Carol loved spending time with her mother, Georgia, shopping on QVC and HSN, and watching Jeopardy and Judge Judy at 10 pm. She enjoyed listening to her aunt Inez Andrews, Prince, and The Temptations.

"Jeannie" was indeed an eclectic character; she was 100% unafraid and unfiltered to the very end. Whether telling you off and then a hug, a sly word or two followed by laughter, or a flipping of the bird while saying I love you. If you received any of this, you were loved.

Towards the end of this wonderful life story, Carol resided at The Grand Rehabilitation and Nursing at South Point. She was treated with dignity and received quality care and compassion.

Carol leaves behind her mother, Georgia, siblings: Alnisa, Roslyn, Richard, Sheila, Michael, Angela, John, 13 nieces and nephews, 14 great-nieces and nephews, and 2 God-children: Taylor and Tahjai.

Respectfully submitted

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*

Acknowledgements
