Obituary

Carol Lorraine Rothschild (nee Young) was born on Sunday, September 28, 1941 in Harlem, New York to William and Emily Allen Young.

She had three siblings: the late Billie Jean Young Merritt, the late Herbert C. Young, and the late Clarita V. Young.

She was raised on 119th Street in New York, New York , where she met many of her lifelong friends. She attended New York public schools and graduated from Charles Evans Hughes High School in Harlem, New York.

At the age of 17 she met Elbert Hubert Oliver and from that union came her daughter Crystal Faulk (Young).

She worked as a clerk for the New York City Department of Personnel, where she made many dear friends. She retired from her position after many years of faithful service in March of 1997.

In 1983, Carol fell in love with and married Marcel R. Rothschild in April of that year; and they lived in matrimony in the Bronx until the time of his passing in 1984.

Carol loved life, spending time with her friends, music, dancing, good food, cold weather, and living in New York. She enjoyed New York's four seasons and the fact that you could find anything you wanted nearby. Once Carol made the Bronx her home, she remained there until the time of her passing.

She is survived by her loving daughter Crystal (Erik) Faulk; her nieces Monique Miller (Chink), Pat Alston, Nicole Alston; her grandniece and grandnephews Monet, Sean and Chance Alston; her sister-in-law Rose Young; and best friend for many years, Esther Arlotta; and many other dear friends.

Carol will be dearly missed.

Together

Death is nothing at all - I have only slipped away into the next room. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word it always was. Let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was: there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past: nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as before — only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.
