My memories are what I have left
And a lesson I will not forget
The time has come when time is no more
And all that’s left was once before
The memories so dear and true
Those memories of me and you
Although we fell and stumbled at times
All those hills were necessary climbs.
All the times when your heart shined through
Are the greatest memories I have of you.
I will always remember you, brother of mine
In my heart, I will keep you so I will be fine.
I will go forward with my head up high
It might be hard, I cannot lie.
But in my heart you will be
Moving forward you with me.
Love always, your siblings

Obituary

James Edward Shaw, Jr. 25 of Newark, NJ received his wings and was called to be with the Lord on February 16th, 2022. James Jr. was born June 19, 1996, to James Shaw and Sharnell Lewis.

James Jr. had a deep love for his family, making sure all his family knew he loved them, and they loved him back. With a smile that could light up a room and a contagious laugh that could change any mood, James Jr. loved helping and giving advice to others, a kind and loving soul. James Jr. may have been the smallest in the room but had a heart of a lion making him our little brother with the biggest heart.

James enjoyed painting with his father, playing video games, and watching movies with his family. He laid on his father's chest at random moments until high school truly a bond no one can break. James was given the nickname two-two because he was his father's second son and junior making him a double two. James Jr. loved animals. His first pet was a ferret which he would feed Cheetos to all the time.

James attended Newark public schools and later graduated from Weequahic High School. A true Beth Israel baby, Jr. would go to work with his father at Newark Beth when a sitter wasn't available. His father's coworkers and friends would help watch him on their breaks and lunches. This came full circle once James Jr. graduated from high school, and Newark Beth was his first place of employment. He always lived in the moment. James was a giving person showing his last act of kindness as an organ donor. His life will always be the gift that keeps giving!

He was preceded in death by his grandmother Lillian Vernice Shaw-Hodges, grandfather James Edward Hodges, Lillian and Johnell, and uncle Rodney D. Shaw. James Jr. leaves to mourn his parents Sharnell Lewis, James and Erika Shaw, his son Naziir Martin, grandparents Sylvia, Clara and Jasper, siblings Tajaree, Aisha, Porsha, Semaj, Samir, and Chloe, his aunts and uncles Roderick, Rhonda, Rochelle, Renita, Kenya, Roslyn, Robert Susihala, Cynthia, Karen, Reuben, Leeshohn, Marion and Gerard; nieces and nephews Jah'Manie, Nazmin, Na'omi, Messiah, and Noah, girlfriend Brandi, pets Paris, Tiger, Pebbles, and a host of cousins and friends who will all deeply miss him.
