

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Pauline Engram entered this life on March 27, 1930 to late Vasque and Elizabeth Spates Engram in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Pauline was educated in the Elizabeth Public School System. Pauline loved to help others and spent many years working as a nurse's aide at Elizabeth General Hospital. She also spent years working for Singers Manufacturing Co. and Deka Plastics.

Pauline was known for her incredible personality, infectious positivity, beautiful smile and willingness to help others. It is this positivity that gravitated her towards helping families in the community. Pauline served on several local political committees and campaigns for council and mayoral candidates, where she worked to increase voter registration as well as many other community service groups to serve others.

Pauline loved to cut a rug, enjoying music and would quickly begin to snap her fingers and encourage others to dance. Her quick wit was a head turner. During the summers she could usually be found volunteering to chaperone summer camp programs or bus trips for children in the Elizabeth community.

Pauline was a sharp dresser and was always sure to be arrayed in a beautiful color coordinated outfit most definitely to include red, her favorite color.

She loved God and was a faithful member of Greater Mount Moriah Baptist Church for over 40 years, where she served as President of the Missionary Board and Floral Committee. Pauline would frequently be included on one of the church programs either sharing her love for singing or a thought provoking poem to motivate her fellow church members.

Pauline loved family, laughter, and spending time surrounded by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her parents and a son Reginald Engram, a son in law Patrick Clark, her siblings, Elizabeth Ross, (Clipsey), Corrine Thomas, Lillian Woodard and Silvester Engram.

Pauline leaves to cherish her fond memories, her three children, Yvonne (Denise) Clark, Edward (Pop) Engram and Stephanie Britt; nine grandchildren; twenty-five great grandchildren, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives.
