Obituary

Rosemary L. Dalton went to work her charm on the angels on Tuesday, February 22, 2022 at Morningside Nursing Home at the age of 80.

Rosemary was born on August 12, 1941 in Queens, New York at Jamaica Hospital. Daughter of Hester and Herbert McNeil. She was preceded in death by her parents and daughter Elsie. Rosemary and George Franklin Dalton joined hands in marriage on March 24, 1960. Through this union, three children were born, George Franklin, Jr., Deborah Dalton and the late Elsie Dalton.

She worked as a live-in maid for over forty years until her Alzheimer's took over and she went into Morningside Nursing Home in 2016 where she remained until the Lord took her home. Rosemary had a true heart. Always loving, giving and helping those closest to her within her chosen circle along with her family bringing laughter and joy into their lives. Never one to beat around the bush, Rosemary preferred to tell it like it was as that was her style and we all loved her for it.

Rosemary is survived by her husband, George Dalton, Sr.; son, George F. Dalton; daughter, Deborah Dalton; grandchildren, Martha Miller, Claudia Dalton, Shamek Dalton and Davon Renfro; thirteen great-grands, Porscha, Sincere, Naidira, Hanasia, Zyeir, Zyaira, Yaasiim, Ywaseem, Dajasha, Nataysha, Shameke Jr., Elija, Shadiamond; one great-great-grandchild, Zelena; daughter-in-law, Kecia; her closest circle, Christiana Garrison, Eveath Miller and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

Rosemary will be laid to rest with her daughter Elsie Dalton.

Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, "Grieve Not for Me"
Remember the best times, the laughter The songs
The good I lived while I was strong
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep smiling, the sun will shine through
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remember all...how I was truly blessed
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again
Thank you for sharing in the celebration of Rosemary Dalton

Acknowledgement
