Feel No Guilt

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.
 Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
 You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.
 She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
 So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
 The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
 Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
 Will suddenly re-capture a time, an hour a day,
 That brings her back so clearly as though she were still here,
 And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
 For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
 And she will live forever locked safely in your heart.

Acknowledgements

*Perhaps you sent us flowers or sat quietly in a chair
 Perhaps you sent a lovely card or maybe we saw you there
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say
 Perhaps you were not there at all but kept us in your thoughts and prayers
 Whatever you did to console our hearts
 We thank you so much whatever the part
 May God bless and keep you*

Order of Service

Debra P. Taylor Spicer was born on March 17th, 1961, to the late Nellie and Hayward Taylor Sr. in Brooklyn, NY. She was the older of their two children and educated in the New York City Public School System. After graduating from Lafayette High School in Brooklyn, NY in 1979, where she was an avid cheerleader, she went on to study at Morgan State University in Baltimore, MD.

While attending Morgan State University she met Darren Jenkins Sr. They married on October 22, 1988. Out of their union they were blessed with two sons Darren Jenkins II and Dustin Jenkins. Debra was a wonderful and loving mother who gave her all to her family.

On March 17th, 2008, she married the late Edward Spicer, who preceded her in death in 2020.

Debra had a long and successful career as a Station Agent for the New York City Transit Authority for 34 years. In 2019, when she retired Debra kept in touch with many of her MTA colleagues. She also gained a love for bowling.

Our mother, Debra, was one of the kindest women to ever walk this earth and our family was blessed to have her as the head of the family. Debra was a mother, grandmother, sister, niece, cousin, and friend to so many. She is survived by her sons Darren Jenkins II (Charlene), Dustin Jenkins (Jarena); Grandchildren Dillon, Leighann, Courtney, Isabel, Austin, and Jackson Jenkins; Brother Hayward Taylor Jr.; Stepfather Compton Toussaint; stepchildren Talmadge and Nia Spicer; and several uncles, aunts, cousins, nephews, and a host of friends.
