Obituary

Marjorie Admiral was born Marjorie C. Ramsey on January 9, 1929, in Hollywood, Florida.

Marjorie was raised by her mother Susan (Sue) Williams and her mom's sisters, Louise, Sarah, Marietta and Kathleen, who are all deceased.

Her formal education was in New York, where Marjorie as she has told us was one of the first black students to attend White Plains High School. It is in White Plains High School that she met her lifelong best friend, Mabel (now deceased).

June 13, 1948, Marjorie married the love of her life, Richard C. Admiral (deceased). From this union came two children, Linda Susan, and Richard Aaron (Chappy).

Marjorie went on to pursue the medical field and became a Nurse. She dedicated 35 yrs of her life to The Hospital for Special Surgery, where she retired in 1985.

Marjorie and Richard enjoyed their amazing life together. They especially liked to entertain and party. They traveled extensively throughout their years together, visiting many of our U.S. states and over 13 countries. Marjorie was a doting grandmother and was affectionally known as "Nana".

Marjorie was a lover of poetry and often wrote poems. She was an avid lover of knitting and crochet and up until the last few years, continued to crochet to keep herself busy. She loved to read the bible and was a devoted Catholic.

Marjorie was preceded in death by her second oldest granddaughter Ananda Admiral. She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her daughter, Linda, son, Chappy, granddaughter Kyna, grandson Jonathan (her heart), son-in-law, Robert, grandson-in-law, Kendo Payne. 3 great grandsons, Garvey, Stokely, and Dessalines Admiral that reside in Colombia, South America, Granddaughter Felicia, niece, Karen Martin, nephew, Steven Harper, cousins, SallyAnn Smith, Towanda McKenzie, Diane Richardson and Keita Carr, as well as many friends. She will also be missed by her devoted cat, whom she loved dearly, "Tommy".

Marjorie transitioned on Saturday, February 26, 2022, after a lengthy illness.

She is now in the loving arms of her Angel and protector Richard (Richie) where, she now can be at peace.

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.
