Obituary

Kishon Plummer was born on May 10, 1978 in Harlem Hospital to the late Alma Plummer and Moses.

Kishon was educated in New York City and graduated from Murray Bertram High School. After high school, Kishon attended Hostos Community College for several semesters before entering into the workforce as a security guard.

Kishon had a great sense of style, as well as humor. He enjoyed watching sports, especially the New York teams.

Kishon was a trooper—fighting his diagnosis of cancer valiantly and in silence. Kishon succumbed to his illnesses on March 4, 2022 at Harlem Hospital.

Kishon leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memories: great great aunt, Retha Ball; great aunt, Joan Livingston; great uncle, Sam Plummer; godmother, Isadora Deveaux; aunt, Evelyn Plummer Finlay; and a host of cousins, family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
