Obituary

My beloved mother Vickie Wright, youngest of four, born on August 7, 1970 in New York City Harlem Hospital to Jannie Wright and the late Herman Wright. Vickie was raised in the Bronx and continued to reside there all of her adult life.

She obtained her Associates Degree from Hostos Community College as an Accountant. My mother was fond of school and had a talent for adding columns of numbers in her head, which she thought was the norm for everyone. It was a real gift and talent she had of adding, subtracting, multiplying, and dividing numbers so quickly.

After completing her degree, she fell in love with my father, Ronald Coleman. He was her childhood sweet heart and through that union her one and only, Brittany Coleman was born.

Also after completing her degree, Vickie was hired by New York City Metropolitan Transit Authority. She was responsible for counting currency and recording millions of dollars collected daily by the agency. She excelled at her position and moved throughout the MTA.

As a woman I watched my mother carry herself with pride, self respect and integrity. These are qualities she instilled in me, and I'm grateful. Thanks Mom. My mother was smart, stylish, pretty, outgoing and funny to just name a few. She's so effortlessly beautiful. I love you forever.

I hope she can find a slot machine way off to the side in Heaven. She loved the casino and always left with fifty dollars and returned home with fifty dollars (hilarious). She knew when to stop playing. She loved a fabulous shopping mall and a place to host one of her famous dinner parties along with her homemade coconut or chocolate cakes. We will all miss your cooking and your delicious homemade cakes.

She's preceded by her father, Herman Wright and brother, Troy C. Wright.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Brittany Coleman; mother, Jannie Wright; siblings, Millicent Wright and Michelle Wright; nieces, Stephanie Wright and Ashley Shaw; nephew, Montel Strong and wife, Nadine Strong; great nephew, Chase Sapp; great nieces, Mali Rose Strong and Bellamey Strong; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends... New York Family, New Jersey Family, and South Carolina Family.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
