Obituary

Eloise was born on December 16, 1924 in Collins, Mississippi to the late Warren and Virgie Craft. Eloise was called to eternal rest on March 4, 2022 at the age of 97.

Eloise received her early educational training in Collins, Mississippi, where she played baseball and was the star on the basketball team. She worked as a hair beautician where clients lined the walls waiting for her service. At an early age, she united in holy matrimony to Cleo Love (predeceased). Seeking a better life they moved to New York City.

Eloise was loving, caring, patient, kind and compassionate. Family was of utmost importance to her. Being surrounded by her kids and grandkids was a daily thing that brought her so much joy. Cooking, watching the New York Knicks and playing the numbers were a few of her pleasures. Her smiling face and warm embrace will be missed by all.

She was preceded in death by: sons, Eugene and Brinzon; sister, Lottie Marie Leggett; and brothers, Douglas, Willie L., Brinzon and Curtis Craft.

Eloise leaves to cherish her memory: stepmother, Susie Christian; daughters, Alice Turner and Hope Love-Scott; sons, Willie, Leo/CL, Jesse, David and Chris Love; daughters-in-law, Greta Love and Samantha Small; son-in-law, Byron Scott; 31 grandkids, 26 great grandkids, and 2 great great grandkids; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended sons and daughters, beloved neighbors and friends.

GOD SAW YOU WERE GETTING TIRED

God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.
