

“OUR MOM”

Our Mom, so beautiful and so sweet.
Who is now Resting In Peace.
We wish all so much that you was still here. It’s going to be very very hard to bear.

Our Mom, so giving and gracious.
The Phenomenal Woman that made us.
We are going to miss you so much!
We Love You Ma! Yesterday, Today
And Forevermore!!

Sorrowfully/Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

“We Will Always Keep You In Our Hearts”

Maggie Lumicia Parker, affectionately known as “Mitch”, was born to the late Henry Glasscock and Annie Mae Summers-Feimster on January 7, 1934 in Iredell, North Carolina. Maggie age 88, passed away on May 4, 2022 while a patient at the Long Island Jewish Hospital.

Maggie L. Parker completed her education in New York City School System with Honors.

Maggie met and fell in love with Elvin E. Parker (deceased). They wed in holy matrimony on November 27, 1954. From this union six beautiful children were born.

Maggie Parker was a loving wife and an amazing mother. She was also a Christian; a member of Greater Bright Light Baptist Church.

Maggie enjoyed reading, she would finish a good book in a day. She also enjoyed arts/crafts, making placemats, tissue holders, and dolls. Most importantly, she loved family gatherings, the precious moments spent with her children and grandchildren. Those special memories of taking photos; fun and laughter will always be remembered.

She leaves to mourn: her three daughters, Ernestine Parker, Barbara A. Parker-Nix and Sandra Parker; her two sons, Elvin D. Parker and Eric L. Parker; thirteen grandchildren, Ebony, Ladee, Haisan, Georgie, Lumillia, Raymond, Devon, Dane, Kashawn, Erica, Joshua, and Lumicia (aka LuLu, Lola); thirteen great-grandchildren and eight great-great grandchildren; two sisters, Laverne Miller (Verdell) and Janice Feimster (Maureen); one sister-in-law, Annette Reid (Horace); one daughter-in-law, Martine Parker; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

Maggie was preceded in death by her mother, Annie Mae Feimster; her stepfather, Oscar (Jack) Feimster; her husband, Elvin E. Parker; one daughter, Lynn Parker; four sisters, Norene Tabor, Jackie Robinson, Leola and Denise Feimster; her mother-in-law, Emily A. Parker; three brothers-in-law; and two sisters-in-law.

*Because of her love and kindness,
Maggie was loved by many. She will be truly missed.*
