Obituary

Kendall T. Campbell made his heavenly transition home on March 12, 2022. Kendall was the first born of the union of Glenn and Kim Campbell, born May 18, 1981 in Jersey City. The family moved to New Brunswick New Jersey when he was 8 years old where he resided for 32 years. Kendall is the father of two beautiful children, Avah and Rhyan.

Kendall attended St. Aloysius elementary school and continued on to graduate from New Brunswick High School in 2000. Along with his academic responsibilities from elementary, Kendall excelled in little league baseball making the all-star team consistently. In high school, he shined on the New Brunswick baseball team playing in Middlesex, Somerset, and Hunterdon counties as well as out of state regional.

Kendall had an exceptional athletic ability in sports, including swimming, basketball, football, and his favorite- baseball. He loved baseball so much that he continued to play on the Men's League as a right fielder.

Kendall's exciting energy and zest would fill the room. He loved to dance and always could be found on the dance floor. He was the life of the party and could be counted on to get the party started. In his young adult days, he drew crowds in dance challenges at all celebrations.

After high school, Kendall went on to join the Military and served in the US Army from 2001-2003. Kendall served stateside in Kentucky and Kansas prior to being assigned to overseas duty in South Korea. Upon his return, Kendall obtained a forklift license and worked as a forklift operator throughout his career.

Kendall had a lifelong love for fitness. Over the course of his life, he realized that exercise brought him joy. The gym became his second home. He attended Middlesex County College to pursue his dream and passion for fitness to become a Certified Personal Fitness Trainer. Kendall loved training other people to reach their fitness goals.

Kendall was a faithful member of Abundant Life Family Worship Church. Kendall loved the Lord and always began his day by reading the Bible.

Kendall was predeceased by his father, Glenn Campbell, his paternal grandparents James and Hattie Campbell and his maternal grandparents Roger and Clara Fulton.

Kendall leaves to cherish his memory, his daughter, Avah Campbell, his son, Rhyan Campbell, his mother Kim Campbell, his sister, Kourtney Barr, his brother-in-law, Dallas Barr, his niece, Golden Barr, his dearly beloved girlfriend Terri Richmond, his Aunts Daisy, Janis, Rogenia and Christine and Uncle Tony, a host of cousins and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.

When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
