Obituary

Leshia Mae Worley, 87 years of age, resided at 807 Schenck Avenue, Apt. 8E, Brooklyn, New York. She was born in Parkton, North Carolina.

Leshia graduated with a High School Diploma from down south. Our mother worked as a Teachers' Aide and retired as a Garment Seamstress worker.

Our mother was a loving individual, always caring to help her family and sharing advice if needed. Our mother was a strong woman who valued the standards of the word respect—for herself, her adult children, as well as her grandchildren. Her love has preserved throughout the years towards us, and mother we thank you for being our dear mother, yes, we thank you, Mama.

On March 2, 2022, you were mimicking our names letting us know that you were going to miss us all.

She is survived by her eldest sons, Ray, Clay and daughter, Evita; her granddaughter, Leandrea; and great grands, Antwoine, Clyde, Zamari, Zenonee, (Queen), as she named her, Consorchia and Cameron. Also, she is survived by her two sisters, Francis Gibson and Carolyn Thompson; and a host of other relatives.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
