Obituary

Mr. Malcolm Anthony Rollins Robinson, Sr. was born on September 26, 1963 in the Bronx, New York to the late Maxine R. Robinson and Gilbert Saunders. Malcolm was Maxine's first born to her five children and Malcolm would be Gilbert's only child.

He had various jobs throughout his life working for Valcom, Lifetime and Auburn University as a Mailroom Clerk. Malcolm was not afraid to get his hands dirty. He had a passion for drawing, cooking, fashion and music. His childhood family and friends called him "Jedi".

Malcolm is preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Maxine R. Robinson; father, Gilbert Sanders, and younger brother, Lamar Robinson Turner.

Malcolm leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Selena; daughters, Jasmine Poindexter, Bronx New York, Malena Robinson, Mia Robinson, and stepdaughter, Andrea Maddox all from Opelika, Alabama; two sons, Mikel (Sydney) Robinson, Malcolm Robinson Jr., and stepson Anthony Maddox all from Opelika, Alabama; grandchildren, Brody, Je'Caryous, Antwan Jr., Malye, Makenzie, Ar'Myni, A'Kiah and Alizea; six step-grandchildren; two step-great-grandsons, Opelika Alabama; sister, A'Lelia Robinson, Bronx New York; brothers, James (Lashonna) Robinson Portland Oregon and Kenny (Laura) Robinson Manhattan, New York; uncle, Dennis (Edith) Rollins Cortlandt Manor, New York; loving niece, Janice Robinson Riley, North Carolina; and little brother/friend, Nate H., Bronx, New York; and a host of other uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and friends.

Malcolm was a brat, being the eldest of his siblings he was a protector of his sister and brothers. He had a great personality; he was calm, cool, collective and peaceful, but most importantly, he was humble. Malcolm had fought a long hard battle with his demons but most of all his health. He passed away peacefully in his sleep on March 6, 2022 at Rebekah Rehab Center of Bronx, New York.

Your fighting spirit fought a good fight but God finally called you home where you had longed to be. Malcolm, just know that you will truly be missed by your family and friends. God said it was time and he knows best.

To My Big Brother Malcolm, get your rest. I know that you're at peace now, no more suffering, no more pain or feeling incomplete. My heart is saddened because I lost a best friend, a partner in crime and a father figure to Lamar. I'd just like to say, thank you for loving me, your little sister, the way I loved you. So sleep peacefully now my big brother your fight, your battle, and your job here is done.

Love, your Lil Sis
