Obituary

Sadè was born on May, 30th, 2001. Her parents are Anthony Barker and Cheryl Adeleke, whom Sadè often calls “Mothership” and “Fathership”. Three years after Sadè’s birth, her sister Sanaa was born. Then followed Shannon and Siron. Along with her younger siblings Sadè also has two older brothers, Daniel and Q (Darron).

She attended Wahlstrom Academy at the age of four. She then attended Whitney E. Houston Academy, followed by Hart Middle school. Sadè then continued her studies at Campus High. Her dream was to study cosmetology and become a cosmetologist.

Sadè was greatly loved by many, and with the love she received, she bestowed that love on everyone she came in contact with. She was outspoken, fearless, determined and strong willed.

Sadè loved her family. Especially her grandmother Hyacinth, her uncle Lloyd, her two cousins Danielle and “Cool Debbie” and many more cousins, aunts and uncles.

Sadè had an even more special kind of love for her parents and siblings. Though she has departed this world, Sadè has left us her most precious gem, her son Messiah. Although we have lost a rare and beautiful soul, her legacy will live on through him.

Thank You

Sade's passing is felt by us all.

We want to give our sincere thanks and appreciation to everyone for their love, support and encouragement.

*Her life here on Earth may be over, but her presence can be brought up through memories.
Your kind words and sympathy are felt by us all eternity.*

Thank you.
