Reflection of Life

Harriette Adeline Waltz nee Collier was born on November 2, 1928 in Newark, New Jersey to Albert Collier III and Adelaide Coleman Collier. She attended the Newark school system graduating from Barringer High School and also attended Rutgers University. Upon graduation from high school, she was one out of a group of six African-American females who were screened under a pilot project with the urban league of New Jersey to integrate the Prudential Insurance Company in Newark in 1947.

She began employment with the city of Newark in March of 1958 at the Harrison S. Martland Medical Center presently known as the New Jersey College of Medicine & Dentistry where she worked in the title of Principal Clerk. She worked there for 11 years under the state of New Jersey. She transferred back to the city in 1969 and worked in the Newark Municipal Court in the titles of Principal Clerk, Principal Account Clerk and retired as Assistant Purchasing Clerk. She has worked for the city of Newark for 35 years.

Harriette was a 54 year member of the Bethany Baptist Church of Newark, New Jersey where she had membership in; the Woman's League, a charter member of the Altar Guild, was a Girl Scout leader, served as a steward working with the building fund, a past trustee in the Municipal Career Women and is a life member of the N.A.A.C.P.

Her most proud accomplishment is that of a mother of one son, James Roland Waltz.

Harriette has tried to adapt her life style by the prayer of serenity as her guide:

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

Recessional

Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry for me now I have died, for I'm still here I'm by your side,
My body's gone but my soul is here,
please don't shed another tear,
I am still here I'm all around,
only my body lies in the ground.*

*I am the snowflake that kisses your nose,
I am the frost that nips your toes.
I am the sun bringing you light,
I am the star shining so bright.
I am the rain refreshing the earth,
I am the laughter, I am the mirth.
I am the bird up in the sky,
I am the cloud that's drifting by.
I am the thoughts inside your head,
While I'm still there I can't be dead.*

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.*

*I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
