WHEN I COME TO THE END

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned
and remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken;
remember some good I have done.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way.

Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going;

I would not have you sad for a day,

but in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay,

and come in the shade of the evening

when the sun paints the sky in the west.

Stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.
