Obituary

Gregory Tahron Zigler entered this life on March 24, 1959 to the late Hazeltine and Paul Zigler, Sr., in Harlem New York. On March 11, 2022, God called him home.

Gregory was known to some as “Greg” and “Gangster” to others, he grew up in New York City and was educated in the Parochial school system. Greg decided early in his life that he was going to live his life the way he chose, and that’s exactly what he did.

Greg was affectionately known as Gangster because of his demeanor and how protective he was of his family and the people he loved.

Greg never hesitated to show his family how much he loved them. He was always willing to lend a hand when family needed him. You could always spot him a block away by his signature bop. He even thought he was a chef at times; as he would cook what he called his Famous Spaghetti and Meatballs.

While his death brings us great sorrow, his life brought us so much joy.

Greg leaves to cherish in his memory: his lifelong partner, Estelle Barclift; daughters, Tia (Damon), Tamisha (favorite), Shakeema (Whitey), Latoya, Tenija, Minnie, Chaniya and Keijuanna; two bonus sons; grandchildren, Tianna, Diamon, Precious, Monay, Jade, Mister, Paige, Jermaine Jr., Jadir, Wayne Jr., Makayla, Mailyynn and Storm; brother, Paul Zigler, Jr.; sister, Yvette Hawkins Zigler (and predeceased by his sister, Vonnie Zigler); nieces and nephews, Denise, Michael, Javette, Paul T. Zigler III, Taniekwa, Shatasia, Kenneth, Kiana, Mercedes, Rachel, Edrena, Donice and Hazel; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.

Carry On My Children

Carry on my children
And do not weep.
For today is not the end
But instead the beginning.
Carry on my children
You must be strong
For I am home with the Lord
And I am free from all that ails me.
Carry on my children
And keep my memory alive
Remember our laughter
And all the joys we shared.
So until we meet again
Carry on my dear children
For one day we will all be free.
