Obituary

Quardell FuQuan Davis, affectionally known as “FuQuan” or “Fu” was born in Newark, New Jersey on Thursday, April 28, 1977 to the late Theresa Davis and James Jones. He departed this life Wednesday, March 16, 2022.

Quardell was educated in Newark, New Jersey attending Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School and East Side High School ultimately obtaining his General Education Diploma (GED).

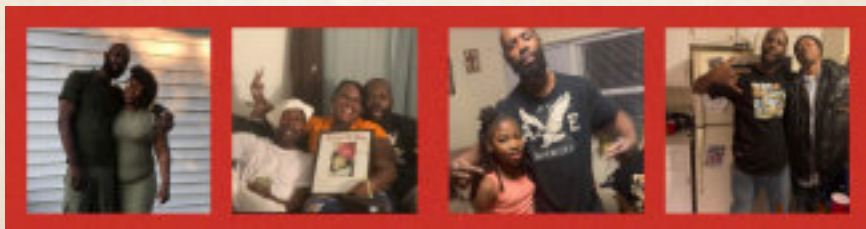

Quardell was the eldest of his siblings and a true to form ‘big brother’ caring for his sister and brothers amidst troubled family times always assuring them everything would be OK.

Quardell loved to play basketball and rap. He was well-known in his community as “FuQuan” or “Fu”. Quardell had a favorite quote he often said when you saw him; “Fu right here; I’m gonna be alright...Fu got Fu!”

Quardell was preceded in death by his parents, Theresa Davis and James Jones; maternal grandparents, Patience Davis and James Gales, Sr.; brother, Rahsoul Davis; uncle, James Gales, Jr.; cousins Tonya Davis and Suton Davis.

Quardell leaves to cherish his precious memories; son, Isaiah Kingsberry of Newark, NJ; granddaughter, Neveah Kingsberry of Newark, NJ; siblings, Tyneshia Davis-Mazard (Murray) of Irvington, NJ and Taheed Davis (Shawnette) of Henderson, NC; nieces and nephews Shaheem, Tanijah and TyYonna Davis, Qwanyé and Qua’mir Battle, Ja’ziyyah and Theresa Davis, and Major Mazard; six aunts, Linda (Nathaniel), Ellen and Darlene Davis, Shirley Lewis, Joyce Stamper (Kenneth) of Savannah, GA and Christian Gales of Delanco, NJ; his significant other, Linette Deloatch; and a host of family and friends.

Quardell will truly be missed by all who loved him.

Until we meet again...

*Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile
If only I could have you back
Just for a while
Then we could sit and talk again,
Just like we use to do...
You always meant so very much
And always will too
The fact that you're no longer here
Will always cause me pain
But you're forever in my heart
Until we meet again.*
