Obituary

On April April 22, 1980, Kim DeShawn Jones was born in North Central Hospital in the Bronx, New York to his parents Marie Wright and Kim Jones, Sr. Kim attended PS2 and later went on to graduate from Public School 148 in the Bronx.

Soon after Kim graduated from school, he became a Dad. He welcomed his first daughter into the world. After his first child was born, he began doing trade work as a construction worker. Kim was fearless and family oriented. Years passed by and he expanded his family. He decided to help raise another daughter, and later had two more daughters. Kim loved his children and everyone he came in contact with respectfully.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Evelyn Pryor and paternal grandfather, Thomas Cross.

He leaves to cherish memories his mother, Marie Angela Wright; father, Kim Jones, Sr.; three daughters, Octavia Smith, Kamirah Jones, and Kaliah Jones, one unborn child, and Brenda whom he helped raise; three siblings (from his mother's side), Darren, Derrick and Erick; eleven siblings (from his father's side), Donte, Quintin, Terrance, Dahjae', Jason, Kimberly, Antoinette, Jennifer, Janay, Jasmine and Kaniesha Jones; grandmother, Antoinette Jones; aunts, Boo and Sheila; uncles, Larry, Thomas and Shane; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members, friends, and loved ones too many to name.

His heart was open to a lot of people. Let's cherish all the positive things about his life. Kim would want it that way.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave". The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you".
