Obituary

Christopher Kyle Murry, AKA "Chris" or "Poppa", was born on April 17, 1994, to Celeste Johnson and Chris Murry. Chris had a great childhood growing up in the Bronx and spending summers in Alabama with his Dad and Grandparents. BWA, Chris went to PS 4, 340, BWA and Health Opportunities High School where he had a lot of friends and cherished memories.

Chris was always a great worker from his start in the Summer Youth Program, to working for the Circle Line, to testing people for COVID. Chris' favorite and final job was working for The Department of Education at The Captain Manuel Rivera Jr. School 279 in the Bronx. Chris really loved working with the children at 279 and he wanted to make a positive impact on them.

Chris was such a great son, brother, uncle, nephew, grandson, and friend. He always had a great smile and great conversation, especially about old school music, sneakers, sports and he was very vocal about Black History.

Chris also had a love for vintage clothes and restoring old sneakers to new, and he loved animals, especially dogs. His dogs Dutches and Ox, were his pride and joy.

Chris loved his family, especially his two nephews Kai and Chase who were both born years apart on the same day, August 3rd. He also loved his big sisters

Keishawn and Courtnee, but he didn't like being the "little" brother to them, he wanted to be the "Big Brother"

Chris left a great mark in this world and he will truly be missed. Chris, thevintagegawd, is so amazing!

Chris is survived by his mother, Celeste Johnson, his Dad Chris Murry, sisters Keishawn, Courtnee, and Imani; brothers JoJo and Carson; nephews Kai and Chase; Grandmother Anne Murry; Great Grandma Mary Murry, God Mothers Lashawn Surrentt, Debbie McKune, Roxanne Clark; and a host of Aunts and uncles; Godbrothers Naquan, Corey, and Vincent, and "The '94 Crew" his cousins: Tyson, Timothy, Madison, Tyler, Colin, Reggie; his Falu family, his extended family and friends, and his beloved dog Ox.

No Need To Weep

Oh, my loved ones, why do you weep? Wipe away your tears, for I'm only asleep. Will not awake when you call my name, Because in the midst of the night, Death came.

I have earned this eternal rest, Because in life God put me to the test. The battle is over and the victory is won, God spoke to me and he said, "Well Done."

He stretched out His hand to beckon me, And said, "Come home my child, to eternity." Wipe away the tears, because I'm only asleep, I'm in the arms of Jesus, so there's no need to weep.

*Weeping may endure for the night,
But joy cometh in the morning.*
