Obituary

Cloceal DeYampert was born in Gosport, Alabama, August 4 1930, to Lela B. and LeRoy Tucker.

She was the youngest of three, with brothers Wheeler and Legusta.

After completing Central High School in mobile, Alabama, Cloceal moved to New York in 1953 and would pursue a career in nursing at Kings County Hospital, retiring in 1991 after 40 years of service.

She married Elbert DeYampert and from their union had three sons: Elbert Jr., Michael, and Steven.

Cloceal was predeceased by her husband and two younger sons. Tragedy she knew well and with wit and wisdom embraced life.

On retiring Cloceal enjoyed travel, especially "back home" visiting relatives and friends. Outings to Atlantic City and walks through her community, meeting new faces and old ones, were joy

She leaves to mourn her surviving son Elbert Jr., a host of nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, and a community of friends and neighbors.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
