OBITUARY

Today we are gathered here to mourn but also to celebrate the life of a great man , Mr. Felix Honore. On March 24th, 2022 Mr. Honore left us suddenly to meet his maker.

Mr. Felix Honore was born on March 10th, 1955 to Mr. André and Veronica Honore in Vielle Case, in the island of Dominica He was the 4th of 10 children.

Mr. Honore grew up in a close-knit family with his siblings, Lawrence, Cletus, Didier, Anselm, Bernard, Hillary, Bertha, Agnes, and Iris.

Felix took an interest in farming at a very young age as a result he was able to traveled between Dominica and Antigua to sell produce.

While in Antigua he got a job on a tourist boat which traveled from Miami to the Caribbean islands. While working on the boat Felix discovered that he also had a passion for cooking and on that very tourist boat he got trained to become a chef.

In 1979 while the boat was ported in St. Lucia, Felix meet a beautiful young lady which will later became his wife in 1984 Mrs. Valencia Honore.

If you had to describe Mr. Honore in one word it would be HARD WORKING. He did everything possible to provide for his wife and four children, Mario, Denise, Kenthen and Kareem.

In 1989 Felix moved to the United States to pursue his dream on becoming a master chef. Felix got a job at Brookdale Senior Living where he was the head chef for 23 years. He was a tremendous chef as many of us here today can affirm.

Many of us who knew Felix also know that he was a music lover especially country music. He loved dancing, he and his wife Valencia would dance into the night , but many would say he was better at cooking than dancing but nevertheless he did it with passion and received the same joy from it.

He was grateful for his family which extended as he got older Beyond his wife and children.

To his four grandchildren whom he loved dearly : Kai, Avery, Akayla and Kaylyn.

Felix had many nieces, nephews, colleagues and friends many of whom are here today.

Felix during his life time touched many lives as we can attest by the attendance here today. He was loved and will be missed dearly by everyone who knew him.

Gone but not forgotten. Rest In Peace my friend

In Loving Memory of My Father

FELIX HONORE

I knew there was going to be a day that I would have to be the reflection of the man who I called Dad, but never did I imagine the day would come so soon.

It still feels like a dream knowing that you're no longer here, reality has been hitting me very hard.

I have tried to compress the memories of you to keep the tears from flowing but looking in the mirror all I see is a split image of you.

Only a heart as dear as yours would have given so unselfishly.

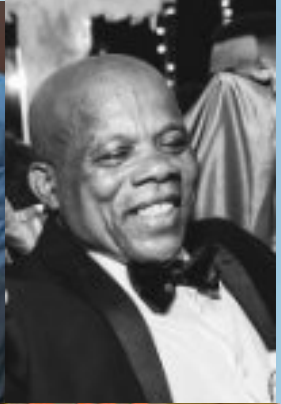

Though I never told you how much I appreciated you enough, the many things you did for me was always well received.

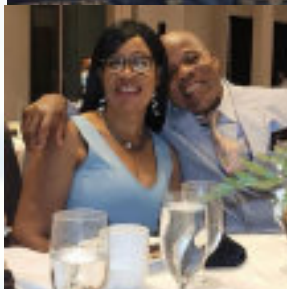

You held my hand when I was small, you caught me when I fell, you were the hero in my childhood memories and even up until now.

Though I will always miss you I know you're by my side in laughter and in sorrow, in sunshine and in rain; I know you're watching over me.

I have embraced the responsibility of carrying on your legacy.

Kenthen Honore

Feel no guilt in laughter
He'd know how much you care
Feel no sorrow in a smile
That he is not here to share
You cannot grieve forever
He would not want you to
He'd hope that you could carry on
The way you always do
So, talk about the good times
And the way you showed you cared
The days you spent together
All the happiness you shared
Let memories surround you
A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
A time, an hour, a day
That brings him back as clearly
As though he were still here
And fills you with the feeling that
He is always near
So, talk about the good times
And the way you showed you cared
The days you spent together
All the happiness you shared
And if you keep those moments
You'll never be apart
And he will live forever
Locked safely within your heart
