Obituary

Anthony Quinn Ingram was born on August 20, 1963, to Naomi Ingram and Perry Morgan of Newark, New Jersey at the Martland Hospital. He departed this life on Saturday March 26, 2022 in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. He was preceded in death by his wife Genea Ingram of Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

Anthony, Quinn Salhadin or Sal was his family knew him received his education in the Essex County School District. He attended Bergen Street School, Peshine Avenue School and later graduated from Weequahic High in 1981.

Anthony accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Good Shephard Church of Christ in Newark. As an adult he converted to Islam and took his Shahada to solidify his faith as a Muslim.

Sal was an entrepreneur, a real go-getter! As a teen he fell in love with boxing, later becoming a golden glove champ. Being stylish was also a gift of his. With his fashion sense he got further into barbering. Sal loved cutting hair. Sometimes he'd cut your hair whether you asked or not. And payment was mandatory or else he'd cut an "oopse" or push your hairline back. Sal was an extremely caring person. Music and singing were also some of his hobbies.

He leaves to cherish his memories his mother and father Naomi Ingram and Perry Morgan of Newark, NJ, his 3 sons Saladeen Williams of Plainfield NJ, and Ali and Bashir Ingram of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, 2 stepchildren Kimberly and Maurice Whitaker of Wilkes-Barre Pennsylvania, 12 grandchildren, 6 brothers Richard (Zeta) Ingram of Tobyhanna, Pennsylvania, Kenneth (Tara) Ingram of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Erick Ingram of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Dan Blake of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Darrin Blake of Newark, New Jersey and Derrick Franks of Newark, New Jersey, 2 sisters Pamela Ingram and Jeanine (Demetrius) Ingram-Harris of Newark, New Jersey, an aunt Charlie (Brady) Lee of Newark, New Jersey, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Brother in Heaven

They say there is a reason
They say time will heal
Neither time or reason
Will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days we used to share
But in my heart you are always there.
The gates of memories
Will never close;
I miss you more than
Anybody knows...
Love and miss you everyday
Till we meet again
Always and Forever I'll pray

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement. May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
