Obituary

Harold Pace, Jr. made his transition on Friday, April 1, 2022.

Harold was born in Savannah, Georgia on April 9, 1962 to Bernice D. Pace and Harold Pace, Sr. As a young child Harold relocated with his family to Newark, New Jersey where he attended Central High School, graduating in 1980. He furthered his education by taking classes to earn his boiler operator license. Making this his career job, he achieved many successes and eventually rose to the position of Chief Engineer.

He married Michele Ransom in July 1990.

Harold was employed at Chris Hospital from February 2000 until his passing.

Harold will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He enjoyed listening to jazz music, coming home from work to watch T.V. and having barbecue in the summer-time along with family and friends by his side. He was very outgoing and so filled with much life inside that was unmatched. He was a beloved father, grandfather, son and friend.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife, Michele Ransom-Pace of 31 years; daughter, Nicole Smith; granddaughter, Ny'Omi; brothers, Chester Jackson, Cyrus Jackson, Carl Pace, Hal Pace and Michael Pace Johnson; sisters, Beverly Jackson, Sandy Pace, Linda Pace-Jones Ronelle Williams and Saiyda Jackson; other brothers and sisters; uncle, Matthew Pace; aunt, Janice Pace, both of Savannah; nieces, LaQuinta Ellison & Alaysha Walker and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Recessional

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
