Obituary

Louise was born on May 7, 1933 in Mullins, South Carolina. Louise was born to the late Maime and Wade Singleton. Louise departed life on April 1, 2022.

Louise was educated in Palmatto High School in South Carolina, then after graduating she moved to New York City in 1954. Accepting Christ at an early age, after moving to New York City she continued her journey at Southern Baptist Church. She then met her late husband Isaac in 1956, and they had two daughters together, Sabrina and Saberria.

Louise was the mother/sister/auntie/cousin of the family. Her home was always a safe place and refuge to anyone who needed sage advice, a good laugh, hot meal or a place to stay.

Louise was preceded in death by her late husband Isaac; her mother, Mamie; father, Wade; brothers, Albert, Johnson, and Wade Jr.; and sisters, Mary, Amy, Sallie, and Janette.

Louise is survived by: her two daughters, Sabrina and Saberria; her grandchildren, Corey, Eric, Shaheem, Myra, and Shamar; her great grandchildren, Lanycia and Amir Zaire; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
