Obituary

Darius Joseph Griffith Jr. was born in Jamaica, Queens New York on October 16, 1989 to Shikira Griffith and Darius Joseph Griffith Sr.

As the eldest of four, Darius was a leader and protector of his mother and little sisters, charismatic, and a true gentleman. A true momma's boy, he held love and family as core values- essentially being the link to chain for his family. Depending on which family member you ask, he was known by many nicknames such as June Bug, Junior, Butter Roll and Bucket.

Darius earned his High school diploma from Robert F. Wagner High School. He then went on to attend Queens Borough Community College where he studied Filming and Media Production, which were his passion and dream. Darius enjoyed capturing life's greatest moments with photography through his lens. An independent self-starter, ambitious, and shining light, Darius had a mind of greatness, heart of sincerity and soul this world did not deserve. Darius was a lover of food, fashion, comedy, and The Chucky Doll. When not working his security detail he found pleasure in playing video games with his friends, hanging out with his friends, making jokes, playing with his niece and thinking he deserved a jersey on the New York Knicks.

Darius leaves behind his mother Shikira Griffith, father Darius Joseph Griffith Sr., his grandmother Lottie Fenner, his three little sisters Kiara Griffith, Jamira Prewitt, Shamira Prewitt; his niece Aniyah Hinds, Godmother and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

The Broken Chain

*We didn't know that morning
God was going to call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same...
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
