

If Roses Grow in Heaven

*If roses grow in Heaven Lord
 Please pick a bunch for me.
 Place them in my Mother's arms
 and tell her they're from me.
 Tell her that I love and miss her
 And when she turns to smile,
 Place a kiss upon her cheek
 and hold her for a while.
 Because remembering her is easy,
 I do it every day.
 But there is an ache within my heart
 That will never go away.*

Acknowledgements

Me and my entire family would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who have given their consolation during the passing of my mother. Thank you for the prayers, visits, calls, cards, monetary gifts and sympathy which brought us so much comfort. Special thanks to our family, Bishop Liston Page Jr., and Highway Nation. May God bless and keep each and every one of you!

Reflections of Life

Johnnie Mae Moses was born in Florence, South Carolina on June 29, 1946 to the late John H. Moses Sr. and Annie Mae (Chestnut) Moses. She attended PS#15 and Central High School located in Paterson, New Jersey. Johnnie worked for Bogen Communications in Paramus, New Jersey for over 20 years.

At a young age, Johnnie attended Unity Temple House of God Saints in Christ located in Newark, NJ, where she received the indwelling of the holy spirit under the leadership of the late Bishop Nick HighTower. She also attended Hope of Deliverance located in Paterson, NJ under the leadership of Dr. Alice Crawford.

Johnnie loved singing, playing games, typing, writing and when we say writing; we mean the best penmanship you will ever see. During her younger years, she was the secretary for her father who was a singer and promoter. She use to invite and write to the liking of Shirley Caesar, Mahalia Jackson and also James Cleveland. Her writing was so superb, that Mahalia Jackson said this was the best penmanship handwriting she had ever seen.

She loved to do a host of things but the most important and main thing was the love and respect she had for her family. Family outings would turn into who could tell the best family story and Johnnie would be one of the winners with her sense of humor and storytelling. Thanksgiving, Christmas and any other holiday she spent with family would be considered a special time in her life and she loved every minute of it.

Johnnie was the most positive and loveable person you would ever want to meet. No one was ever a stranger to her. She made everyone feel welcomed and loved you whether you were blood related or not. She would often be seen playing numerous games and enjoying life. Her greatest love was her son Kevin who she referred to as her baby, daughter-in-love, Angyl and her grandchildren who she would call every day to just say she love them and is always praying for them.

Johnnie will mostly be remembered for her sense of humor, spending time with family, and just having fun.

In 2010, she joined the Highway Church also known as “Highway Nation” under the great and powerful leadership of Bishop Liston Page Jr. Johnnie served as one of the Mothers on the Mother Board at Highway Nation. As the Word of the Lord and praise would go forth, Mother Moses would do the six second shout of praise and dance. It was the quickest dance ever; but the Lord understood her praise.

She was preceded in death by her parents: John H. Moses Sr. and Annie Mae (Chestnut) Moses; four sisters Charlotte Chestnut Carter, (Cebra Carter), Mary Hamilton, (Samuel Hamilton Sr.), Lillie Mae Smith, Amile Latson, (MK Latson), three brothers, John Moses Jr. (Big June), Flen Chestnut Jr. (Uncle Buck), James Chestnut, (Curtis Chestnut), and Brother-in-Law, Lenton Smith Sr. She leaves to cherish her fond memories: her only son, Kevin Moses (Angyl Moses), four grandchildren: Isaiah Moses, Jaydon Moses, Kayla Moses, Caleb Moses of Jersey City, NJ, one sister: Annie Mae Smith of Belleville, NJ and two brothers, Nathaniel and Leon Moses, both of Paterson, NJ, dear friend Dorothy Shaw of Paterson, NJ and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
