Obituary

Granville, better known as 'Pops', was born on October 3, 1971, into our family, a bouncing 10 pounds 12 ounces baby boy who will always be a precious 'GEM' of the family. He always loved to eat and at three months old he always needed four ounces of baby formula to be satisfied. He would squeeze the bottle and cried until he was fed again. We watched him growing up with so much POSITIVITY AT A VERY YOUNG AGE. At 15 years old he sang at the Penta Hotel in Manhattan with the Harlem Boys Choir. As he got older, he realized that he wanted to be a part of the music industry. Even though he was attending Bronx Community College and Hostos Community College to become an attorney, he still believed that music was his calling and so he continued this path. His Producers showed him that he had the potential as a Rap Artist. As a result, he made (3) CD's and a music video putting together his own lyrics which explains the Pros and Cons of everyday life. Frederick Kimmel was one of his mentors in the music business. The CDs are "Caught Up", "The Change", and the "Invincible". The music video is "caught Up". "Gee Stars" his Rap Name, was always busy writing and rhyming. About two months ago he decided that he wanted to Start singing. His new album will be out very soon called "Love Life", which explains his life for living against the odds.

Granville Kenny-Gee Starr, will always be remembered for his never ending will to pursue his dreams. He believed that only the best in life is good enough.

Granville was called home on March 27, 2022. He leaves to cherish his memories and mourn his departure: his mother, Margot Arthurs, two sisters, Marjorie Maine-Nyarko, Earlene Arthurs, aunts, Sonia Miranda and Olive Maine, nieces, and nephews: Edward Arthurs, Nichole Francis, Melissa Nyarko, Michael Nyarko, Amber Clunie, Michelle Nyarko, Christopher Nyarko and Riley Harrison. Cousins and Friends. Granville was preceded by his father, Claudius Maine, and his brother Lloyd Arthurs, Jr.

May His Soul Rest In Peace.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
