Obituary

Yvonne Elizabeth James – Johnson (Bonnie) was born to the late Raymond Randall James and Elizabeth James in Brooklyn, NY on July 26, 1947.

Her parents moved to the Bronx where she attended and graduated from Walton High School. Yvonne desired to further her education and went on to the College of New Rochelle where she obtained a bachelor's degree.

She began working at the welfare office in the Bronx and not long after she started working as a social worker at Manpower. As time progressed, Yvonne pursued employment in the Bronx court system as a clerk; she often helped facilitate cases where Judge Judy from the reality TV show was the presider. She worked there for approximately thirty years before retiring.

She met the late Robert Waldorf Johnson in the Bronx; they later married and had three children: Troy, Deron, and Chalissa.

After retirement, she joined the 9/11 emergency disaster program where she registered people affected by the tragic events that took place on September 11th, 2001. She went on to work as a real estate professional where she would help members of the local community find adequate housing.

Yvonne enjoyed her family, eating seafood, and meeting her kids to have lunch at Joey's Deli across from Lincoln Hospital. She loved dancing, volleyball, handball, basketball, and swimming. She was also famously known for her sweet potato pies.

Yvonne joined Shiloh Temple Pentecostal Church where she served as an usher. In 2003, her son Troy started Greater Love Deliverance Center located in the Bronx, where she served as the head usher.

She will always be remembered by her loving smile, helping hands, and her classy style. She loved looking out for others and always had an "open door policy" for family and friends, giving shelter to those in need.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her parents and brother Randall James. She leaves to mourn three sisters, India James, Gloria Caldwell, and Felicia Sanchez; One Uncle, Norman Dallas; Six Children, Troy Johnson (Lynn), Deron Johnson, Chalissa Abney (Lawrence), Dianne Boomer, Joseph Boomer, and Denean Braxton (Bruce); Seven grandchildren, Randall, Corey, D'Aundra, Brianni, Deron (Boy-Boy), Molay, and Devon; Three great grandchildren, Jeremiah, Amir, and Riley; and a host of nieces, nephews, loved ones and friends.

To those I leave behind:

No Tears in Heaven

*There are no tears in heaven
Nor grief of any kind
I leave this final tear drop
To those I leave behind
Though absent from the body
I am present with the lord
The joy of my salvation
Is now my full reward*

Acknowledgments
