Obituary

Barbara Bingley Jenkins was born on December 5, 1956 in Kings County Hospital Brooklyn, New York. She was raised in the Bronx neighborhood called “The Valley” by her parents, the late Robert and Sally Whitehead.

Barbara attended and graduated from Evander Childs High School. She gave birth to four sons whom she loved dearly. Barbara attended cosmetology school. In her early years she became a beautician. Barbara also worked as a home attendant for Kittay Senior Citizens Home and several other facilities. In the late 1990’s, she devoted her life Christ. She began to study God’s Word and attended Bible study classes. These are the activities she enjoyed.

On November 8th, 2002, Barbara married Derwin Jenkins, they settled down and started their lives together in Co-Op City in the Bronx. Her health began to fail her and sent her on an early departure.

Barbara had five siblings, four have preceded her in death, Robert Jr., Michael, Lonnie, and Dorothy. Barbara is survived by: her sister, Arlene Fahie; her four children, Louis, NaDonn, Jerbarr and Kailib; seven grandchildren, Jayden Richardson, Anyah Alexander, Jailon Bingley, Jacob Bingley, Jade Bingley, Jia Bingley, and Kayson Jenkins; two brothers-in-law, Loallen Fahie and Marvin Jenkins; daughters-in-law, Pamella Richardson and Vallin Bingley; one nephew, Maurice Fahie; two nieces, Martha Jones and Dorothy White; her best friend, Wendell Benett who played a major part in her life; and a host of cousins, great-nieces and great-nephews that miss her and love her.

Barbara was a warm and friendly person who had an infectious laugh that drew people in. Barbara was a gifted storyteller, all of her tales were completely mesmerizing.

Family and friends will always remember Barbara.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

To Our Loving Mother
“Our Prayer Warrior”

You were the glue to keeping our family together. We thank you for all your sacrifices that you have made while raising us. We would not be the men we are today. Through your guidance you've taught us to put God first and stand on our word amongst other things. A legacy that we guarantee to pass on to your grandchildren.

Love Always and Forever

Your Boys, Louis, NaDonn, Jerbarr & Kailib
