Obituary

Nathan Jamal Chapman was the son of Shirley Ann Davis and the late Herbert Chapman. He departed this life to be in the presence of the Lord on April 13, 2022. He was raised in Paterson, New Jersey, and accepted Christ as his savior as a young adult. He was educated in the Paterson Public School System.

He loved being outdoors, hanging with his friends and he had a gift for putting things together. For some this would be a small deed, but he remembered everyone's birthday and would give you a call with a special message. He took his role and title as uncle very seriously, always the protector. He had such a big heart especially for children and animals. Lastly, we will always remember his vibrant smile.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Shirley Davis of Clifton, New Jersey. His sisters, Deloris Carter (Gary Carter) of Clifton, New Jersey, Rachelle Chapman of Greensboro, North Carolina and Michelle Smith of Paterson, New Jersey. His grandmother Pearline Chapman of Greensboro, North Carolina, two uncles Jacob and Nathan Chapman of Greensboro, North Carolina. Three Aunts, Betty Jean Washington of Hartsville, South Carolina, Martha Ham-Miller of Rock Hill, South Carolina and Bernetha Williams of York, South Carolina. Rosemary Thomas his god mother from Virginia Beach, Virginia. A host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends. Special mention to his Jump Street family.

Today

Today the music played, and the heavens opened up God called on me and said I had done enough. I know this may be difficult as you watch me go away, but cry tears of joy because I am going home, and you'll be there too one day. Look to God for comfort and He will wipe your tears. Look back and smile at all our happy memories over the years. I am at peace now, no more struggle or pain. God's Kingdom just rejoiced because an angel was gained.
